As there were no volunteers forthcoming, the current incumbents agreed to continue for the time being.

The Chairman introduced the guest speaker Deputy Police Inspector Richard Newton, who assured meeting that we are fortunate to be living in the safest area of the U.K. He said that most of the local crimes burglaries were from sheds and outbuildings and that he welcomed the Sheduction which was instrumental in making people aware of that danger and for making it possible for people to purchase protective devices. He also mentioned the Shop Watch radios which Home Watch had funded and he said the co-operation of the Group was greatly appreciated in that matter and also the assistance given by the Group to Speed Watch.

He drew the Meeting's attention to 2 public concerts by the Dorset Police choir.
