

SATURDAY 14 JULY 11AM – 4PM

FREE pack of Johnsons 'perfect for pollinators' seeds for first 100 visitors

Wild & Wonderful Bees

Open your eyes to the wonderful world of bees at this special family event in our glorious naturalistic garden

Meet the experts including
The Bumblebee Conservation Trust;
Becky Twigg, creator of Salisbury City
Bee Trail and recipient of Defra's 'Bees Needs Champions' award; and Jane Adams, founder of the national Garden Bioblitz.

Discover the delicious taste of local honey and learn how to choose the plants your bees will love.

FREE GUIDED WALKS AND TALKS

BUILD A BEE HOTEL • MAKE A BEESWAX CANDLE

FABULOUS PRIZES TO BE WON INCLUDING:

Bumble Bee wallpaper from Farrow and Ball, Garden Furniture from Wyevale Garden Centres, David Austen roses, Ecofective bee friendly home & garden products, season tickets, plants and local honey

ASK FOR YOUR FREE CHILDREN'S TRAIL

Reduced entry charge: Adults £6 Child £3 Family ticket (2+2) £15

Admission includes free tree trail and garden history guide

All monies raised will be donated to the Knoll Gardens Foundation

Knoll Gardens
Stapehill Road,
Wimborne BH21 7ND

Photo by Jane Adams

Wild and Wonderful Bees is a fundraising event by the Knoll Gardens Foundation a charity that works to help gardeners across the UK create truly stunning gardens that are wildlife-friendly and reduce reliance on scarce natural resources.

The Knoll Gardens Foundation is registered as a charity in England and Wales: 1159390

www.knollgardensfoundation.org

Registered with
FUNDRAISING REGULATOR